

Torch

Everfound

This world is heavy as rain
My heart is barely a spark
Iâ€™m crying out your name
Come and drown out the dark
Just like the stars

Burning brighter like a fire in the sky
Just for your glory oh how I want my life to shine
I want to lift you high

What youâ€™ve called me to do
Is the opposite of hide
Oh God I want to break through
When Iâ€™m surrounded by midnight
Just like the stars

And if it rains or pours, Iâ€™m screaming I am yours
And no one will ignore, who Iâ€™m living for Iâ€™m carrying the torch
