Sooner Or Later

Raghav

Yeah
Don't know sooner or later
Everything is greater you know
Raghav
Kardinal Offishall aka celebrity face is on the place
Se that own that see me black chase is the chain stupid
Yeah Lisa likes my ride and all
Then there's
Sheri who I'd fly across
Just to
Get away from Cindy-Ross
We would meet up in Jamaica
Underneath the stars
Tamika likes 'em quiet and soft
So I'd
Tell her 'bout the puppy I lost
Yeah she would
Try to help me get over the dog
We were freakin' every weekend
Till the break of dawn
But baby
Soon or later
I knew I would change my tune
I've spent so long acting wrong
I didn't know how to be true
But sooner or later
I would find somebody who
Could show me then what I know now
I should have known it would have been you
Sooner or later
I remember we would drive around
Me and all the boys in town
There was no talk of straying or swaying from the playing
There was no talk of settling down
Now they keep calling on me
Saying brother where you gone
So I just
Say I'm with my baby now
That I'm leaving all the scheming

They should try it out yeah
Soon or later
I knew I would change my tune
I've spent so long acting wrong

I didn't know how to be true
But sooner or later
I would find somebody who
Could show me then what I know now
I should have known it would have been you
Sooner or later
Soon or later
I knew I would change my tune
I've spent so long acting wrong
I didn't know how to be true
But sooner or later
I would find somebody who
Could show me then what I know now
I should have known it would have been you
Sooner or later
[Kardinal Offishall Verse]Soon or later
I knew I would change my tune
I've spent so long acting wrong
I didn't know how to be true
But sooner or later
I would find somebody who
Could show me then what I know now
I should have known it would have been you
Sooner or later
Soon or later
I knew I would change my tune
I've spent so long acting wrong
I didn't know how to be true
But sooner or later
I would find somebody who
Could show me then what I know now
I should have known it would have been you
Sooner or later
Soon or later
I knew I would change my tune
I've spent so long acting wrong
I didn't know how to be true
But sooner or later
I would find somebody who
Could show me then what I know now

I should have known it would have been you
Sooner or later
