No One Ever Taught Us

Jason Reeves

You never know you cross the line,
Til you get to the other side
When you're caught just like a thief,
In the light
Both of us have been, deceived
To think we can't deny all of the things we don't like
Oh my
Everybody knows what we did
What we did, what we did
The only way out is to face it, to face it
Cause no one ever taught us to hide,
But you and I
No one ever taught us to hide
The hardest walls to fight
Are the ones we wage inside
Silent with a heart on fire
And some of us believe in things
To keep our inner peace, alive
And we can see the light
Everybody knows what we did,
What we did, what we did
The only way out is to face it, to face it
Cause no one ever taught us to hide,
But you and I
No one ever taught us to hide
You and I
Ooh, Ahh, Ooh
Everybody knows what we did,
What we did, what we did
The only way out is to face it, to face it
Cause no one ever taught us to hide
We did, we did
No one ever taught us to hide
You and I
No one ever taught us to hide
Oh my
No one ever taught us to hide
(No one ever taught us to hide)
Yeah

Oooh, ooh
Oooh, ooh
Oooh, ooh
