December Snapshots

Park Ave.

December snapshots, entire list
Endless new years, every day
I kiss the empty with memories
The naked sky timeless holds me alone, I'll waitViolent breath to touch her past
One more attempt at failed sleep
I am fighting this broken life
Empty ties of you and me
All means nothing until I knowLong chain of cigarettes
I need your voice to fill the night
I kiss the empty with memories
The naked sky timeless holds me alone, I'll wait
I'll wait, I'll wait
