

Try for Me

Last Day Of Summer

Everyday's a discovery
What am I looking for?
I'm living in my mind
all the dreams I want to show you
Baby, baby, baby
You better believe in what I said
I'll show you who I really am
I'll show you who I am Try for me, try for me,
to get yourself together,
we're never lost forever
Try for me x3
to get yourself together, try for me
Everyday's a whisper
I should listen to questioning my head
"what do I need to make it true?"
But tonight you realise you'll fill a glass with rain and hide your heart in it Try for me, try for me,
to get yourself together,
we're never lost forever
Try for me x3
to get yourself together, try for me. I'm looking forward, no fear, no more,
all we have to do now is to let go...
I'm moving backwards to the mistakes we've done
all we have to do now is to let go.
woooooahhh... to let gooo...
Baby, baby, baby
You better believe in what I said
I'll show you who I really am
I'll show you who I am Try for me, try for me,
to get yourself together,
we're never lost forever
Try for me x3
to get yourself together, try for me.
