City of Light

Chunk! No, Captain Chunk!

You stomped on all of our last chances
Burned out on the City of Light
Don't wanna be the last one standing
My head's grinding while my feet take flight

Forget who we are, go back to the start
High expectations won't go far
If there's nothing but words
You won't hold me back this time

Can't stop us now
We're burning this city to the ground
We won't back down
This time, no waiting
Leave it all behind, clear our minds
Escape this town forever
Can't stop us now
We're burning this city to the ground

Not gonna miss those misconceptions
We don't need to lead a fancy life
Never been or break under pressure
Tell them we ain't coming home tonight

Mark my words, they're all that's left
We will stand together
Time to bury these regrets
And start over
