Great Expectations

Kiss

You're sittin' in your seat
And then you stand and clutch your breasts
Our music drives you wild along with the restYou watch me singing this song
You see what my mouth can do
And you wish you were the one I was doin' it toAnd you watch me playin' guitar
And you feel what my fingers can do
And you wish you were the one I was doin' it to
Well, listenYou've got great expectations
You've got great expectationsYou're dying to be seen
And you wave and call my name
But in the day it seems that I'm a million miles awayYou watch me beatin' my drum
And you know what my hands can do
And you wish you were the one I was doing it to
Well, listenYou've got great expectations
You've got great expectations
You've got great expectationsThen you feel these eyes from the stage
And you see me starin' at you
And you hear between the lines, my voice is callin' to you
Well, listenYou've got great expectations
You've got great expectations
You've got great expectations
(Do you wanna play the role?)
You've got great expectations
(You'd even sell me your soul)
You've got great expectations
You've got great expectations
You've got great expectations
(Do you wanna play the role?)
You've got great expectations
(You'd even sell me your soul)
You've got great expectations
(As long as you can play the role)
You've got great expectations
