

Downfall

Monks of Mellonwah

It'll be my downfall
Don't try and save me
In the mountains waiting
Forming diamonds
When you see the crowd run
Follow your daydreams
Your heart is waking
Rising higher
Change, You'll always see the change
In a reckless downpour
Feelin' kinda hazy
Supersonic phasing
Lightning fire
Double time but too far
From what the day means
Muscle up but stay lean
You can find your
Change, You'll always see the change
I the mighty thunder, but I feel the shame
Chase the reckless wonder, but I know you're for the game
I know you're for the game
Summertime in your arms
But I'm still freezing
Didn't you believe that fate surrounds us
In a reckless downpour
I feel you near me
It felt so easy
Please come be my
Change, you'll always see the change
I the mighty thunder, but I feel the shame
Chase the reckless wonder, but I know you're for the game
I know you're for the game
Time will open your eyes you'll see the place it leads Wait, you're fighting away, fighting against what's coming
I the mighty thunder, but I feel the shame
Chase the reckless wonder, but I know you're for the game
I know you're for the game
I the mighty thunder, but I feel the shame
Chase the reckless wonder, but I know you're for the game
I know you're for the game
