

Undo

Björk

It's not meant to be a strife
It's not meant to be a struggle uphill
Ooh I
It's not meant to be a strife
It's not meant to be a struggle uphill
Ooh I You're trying too hard
I am watching you struggle
And struggle and
You're trying too hard, ah It's not meant to be a strife
It's not meant to be a struggle uphill
It's not meant to be as dry
It's not meant to be a struggle uphill It's warmer now
Lean into it
Unfold in a generous way It's not meant to be as dry
It's not meant to be a struggle uphill
It's not meant to be as dry
It's not meant to be a struggle uphill I'm praying
To be in a generous mode
The kindness kind
To share me quiet late It's not meant to be as dry
[Incomprehensible] If you're crying
Undo, undo
If you're sweating
Just undo, undo
If you're bleeding, darling
Undo
