

Do Our Part

28 Days

all I fucking do is complain me and the rest of the scene when did we become so clean that's what's wrong with us I'm really over this whinging does nothing no one want's to hit close to home I'm this I'm that which makes me right choking on your words you fucking clone no it makes you narrow minded you're we're not the only ones get straight up do our part word up do our part I know you've got know heart so heres a four one one for you I know you think you are so smart make a start show us heart so I can see right through see that shit right through why don't you just do your part what the fuck are gonna do what are we gonna do it's up to you and me like I said before whinging does nothing does nothing
