

Where You Belong

Hill Country Revue

She's in my mind, deep inside I feel electric, I feel alive so far away, so close to home, ride this vibe through the telephone sweet sincere without a doubt honest woman gone and found me out sleeve of heart been torn away i've got to mend my ways take my hand let's run away and shed some light on the grey chorusbeen here for you all along the shoulder you've been cryin' on can't help what's goin' on here with me is where you belong Lil' girl come strut my way get on board baby, shake a leg I could meet you if I drive all night I need to hold you and make it right you're what I need so please come here we need to make this perfectly clear sleeve of heart been torn away
and shed some light on the gray bridge-
Sleeve of heart been torn away
I have got to change my ways, change my ways
chorus.
