

Persuasion

Rory Gallagher

Well, I don't need too much persuasion
When I'm in your arms this way
Well, I don't need a sense of occasion
I'm ready any day Well, just tell me your location
And I will get to you
There will be no hesitation
I'll be right there out of the blue Perfection, you seem to be
This connection, we ought to seal
My emotions, I can't conceal
Your heart, I'll steal away I won't put up to much of a struggle
When you look that way
But I know that I'm in trouble
My defense just melts away Well, I think that I'm in heaven
When you knock on my door
Well, I start to seeing double
My resistance is way down low A perfection, you seem to be
This connection, we ought to seal
My emotions, I can't conceal
Your heart, I'll steal away, heart, I'll steal away Well, I don't need to much persuasion
When I'm in your arms this way
Well, I don't need a sense of occasion
I'm ready any day Won't you tell me your location?
And I will get to you
There will be no hesitation
I'll be right there out of the blue Perfection, you seem to be
This connection, we ought to seal
My emotions, I can't conceal
Your heart, I'll steal away
Your heart, I'll steal away, that's right
