

Light A Candle

JJ Grey & Mofro

Living in light and loveIf you say a prayer say one for me
oh keep me in your thoughts'Cause I'll say, say one for you Hold it for the truth
I won't let go at all costI can't play the blame game any longer Made me feel stronger just to say that I'm weakDark thoughts pile in one upon another Dark as any other place, place that I've beenSo light a candle for me
be the guide that I need
When I'm all alone
So light a candle for me
be the joy I see I'm on my way back homeI'll dream of you and all the things you do when I'm goneI'll dream of you and the truth
oh the truthIs anybody out there as full of shit as me?
Does anybody out there feel my guilt?'Cause we can start over and over again Lit by our own light We're all just candles in the nightSo light a candle for me
be the guide that I need
When I'm all alone
Light a candle for me
be the joy I see
I'm on my way back homeSo light a candle for me
be the guide that I need
When I'm all aloneLight a candle for me
be the joy I see
I'm on my way back home
