

Fall

Klank

Down on myself
I can't take the pain
Feel uneasy
Everything is strange Heavy burden
All I seem to bear
No one's watching
No one seems to care See me fall disbelieving all
That has been said
Unrelentless voice
Inside my head When I'm weary
And I have gave my all
If I stumble
Who will break my fall? See me fall, marked by sorrow
Patience wearing thin
See the real me
Trapped beneath the skin When I'm weary
And I have gave my all
If I stumble
Who will break my fall?
