

One More Broken Heart (Remix Version)

Point of Grace

I see people merely existing
I see vacant eyes full of pain
Lives broken and abused, yeah
Hiding hearts scarred and stained
As long as there's one more broken heart
One more crying soul, I'll go
And I will love them, Jesus
As long as there's one more needing You
One more I can show Your love
As long as there's one more broken heart
Could it be that I could make a difference?
If I care the way You care for me
When they look into my eyes
Let it be Your eyes they see
As long as there's one more broken heart
One more crying soul, I'll go
And I will love them, Jesus
As long as there's one more needing You
One more I can show Your love
As long as there's one more broken heart
One more broken heart
Let me show them that You love them
Won't You help me bring them in?
Lord, I promise You again
As long as there's one more broken heart
One more crying soul, I'll go
And I will love them, Jesus
As long as there's one more needing You
One more I can show Your love
As long as there's one more broken heart
One more broken heart
One more crying soul, I'll go
And I will love them, Jesus
As long as there's one more needing You
One more I can show Your love
As long as there's one more broken heart
One more broken heart
One more broken heart
One more broken heart
One more broken heart
One more broken heart
One more broken heart
One more broken heart
