The New You

The Vandals

Now you say that you like me, but you don't "like" like me. And you say that you love me but you're not "in" love with me And we should just be friends- but friends shouldn't treat other friends like that you're not too friendly when you act like that.Every time I call the old you, the new you answers the phone.
I would like to talk to old you , but the new you says you're not homeWhatever happened to that girl I knew, she was just like you- but was way more into me. Lately you've been acting strange, or going through a phase Why's it gotta be like that?
The old you dug me, but the new you snubs me, and asks me to go away
but I ain't going away-Every time I call the old you, the new you answers the phone.
I would like to talk to old you , but the new you says "you're not home"I've been so patient and I'm giving you space
I haven't called all day, but you're still not coming around You've made a big mistake- that's not a threat no matter how it soundsThings were going so great, but as of late you haven't much to sayThe old you loved me, but the new you snubs me, and asks me to go away
but I ain't going away-Every time I call the old you, the new you answers the phone.
I would like to talk to old you , but the new you says you're not homeWell now you say that you like me, but you don't "like" like me.
And you say that you love me but you're not "in" love with me
And we should just be friends- but friends shouldn't treat other friends like that you're not too friendly when you act like that. Should I smash your fucking head with a baseball bat? And dig around the brains and goo for something that looks lie old you-Every time I call the old you, the new you answers the phone.
I would like to talk to old you , but the new you says "you're not home" you say that you like me, but you don't "like" like me....
