

I Ran Away

Coldplay

One, two, three, Will
I ran away from you, that's all I ever do
Though I started here, I ran away from you
I'm gonna come on in and see it through
I ran away from you, that's all I ever do
And when I heard you call to come back to me
I know why I should stay, I don't have the stomach to
Everyone I know says I'm a fool to mess with you
And everyone I know says it's a stupid thing to do
I have your love on call and yet my day is not so full
There might be nothing left to do and so I ran away from you
I'm gonna come on in and my eyes are closed
I can feel it there, the sun's so close
I'm gonna come on out and burn the sky
A star arose in my own cage
I'm stuck in line and in a cage
Just a single little star, I sing for
Everyone I know says I'm a fool to mess with you
And everyone I know says it's a stupid thing to do
I have your love on call and yet my day is not so full
There might be nothing left to do and so I ran away from you
