Don't Look In the Mirror

Benediction

There's an animal inside of you
(Don't look in the mirror)
Banish it from your mind
(The face in the mirror)
Execrate the willing state
(Don't look in the mirror)
Desecrate the pure of fateYou think, you're safe you cannot hide
Deep within see what's inside
Dis-functional civility
Ultraviolet dreamSo polite, so fair to all
(Don't look in the mirror)
You've just so fucked up withered and small
Doff the hat, play the game
(Don't look in the mirror)
While all the time, you're playing just for your own gainAggressive creature, you're not so divine
Open your heart to the killer inside
Lex Talionis inside you keep
Laughing as your enemies weep
Laughing as your enemies weepEyes for eyes and teeth for teeth
(Don't look in the mirror)
Revealing in what lies beneath
(Don't look in the mirror)
Savagery the real law
(Don't look in the mirror)
Give as good as you get, settle the scoreYou think, you're safe you cannot hide
Deep within see what's inside
Dis-functional civility
Ultraviolet dreamSmiling as your enemies screamHide your face from the mirror
Avoid the truth
But you can never hide
From the beast inside of youYou want to feel disgust
But deep within it's truly lust
Give in to the animal revealed
And to the beast inside you yield
