

Tinkerbell

Noe Venable

Tinkerbell busts her brains
Bashing into window panes
But who is gonna need a light
In the buggy buzzy neon night?Tinkerbell takes off her rags
Empties out her saddle bag
And watching all the cracks in the wall rearrange Tinkerbell is open to a change"Probably time I looked into
Some other things a girl can do
Could sell my body
To light up someone's TV"But something comes through at last
So it doesn't come to that
Luckily a girl lost her ring in the rain
So tinkerbell is dangling down a drain
