Goodbye To You

Dot Rotten Feat Ed Sheeran

There's so much I want to say now
But it's too late I know
Well there's no way to heal these wounds now
And my heart bleeds for you
And our love is crashing
Like a tidal wave, coming over me
So I wanted you to know that I finally let you go
After all I've held on to, this is my goodbye to you
I was always there for you but you never saw the truth
And the reason that I know is I've finally let you go
I finally let you go
Yesterday you were my best friend
But tomorrow took you away
There's not much for me to say now
Just goodbye, farewell
And our love is crashing
Like a tidal wave, coming over me
So I wanted you to know that I finally let you go
After all I've held on to this is my goodbye to you
I was always there for you but you never saw the truth
And the reason that I know is I've finally let you go
And every time I close my eyes
My heart is bleeding deep inside
But now my eyes are open
And I'm never gonna be the one for you, the one for you
So I wanted you to know that I finally let you go
After all I've held on to this is my goodbye to you
I was always there for you but you never saw the truth
And the reason that I know is I've finally let you go
Finally let you go, finally let you go
Let you go, let you go
So this is my goodbye to you
