Losing My Mind

Mike Posner

It's 3:45, tell me I'm okay
Thoughts flying in and out my head
It's 4:45, I'm still awake staring
At this ceiling in my bed
Hand on my solo, that's almost empty
Everybody loves me, hit me with Benzes
But who I tryin' to kid now, need to put this shit down
People, I don't even know tell me how to live now
I'm lost on a road but no one even cares
No one left to call, no one even there
Nobody at all, so I'm
Losing up my mind, losing up my mind
Losing up my mind, losing it, losing it
Losing up my mind, losing up my mind
Losing up my mind, losing it, losing it
Losing up my mind, losing up my mind
Losing up my mind, losing it, losing it
Losing up my mind, losing up my mind
Losing up my mind, losing it, losing it

Walking around, looking for a way
But no one tells me which way to go
There's people around, people say my name
But somehow I'm still all alone
Hand me a cigarette, don't care 'bout no cancer
Call up my girlfriend, she doesn't answer
So I'm own my own now, green in this bowl now
Pedal to floor now, I need to slow down
I'm lost on a road but no one even cares
No one left to call, no one even there
Nobody at all, so I'm
Losing up my mind, losing up my mind
Losing up my mind, losing it, losing it
Losing up my mind, losing up my mind
Losing up my mind, losing it, losing it
Losing up my mind, losing up my mind
Losing up my mind, losing it, losing it
Losing up my mind, losing up my mind
Losing up my mind, losing it, losing it
