

I Feel the Magic

Belinda Carlisle

Last night I gave up on myself
 I hit the bed, tell me what should I do
 And in a dream I saw your face
 It's more than just a face
 You make me want to give my heart away I feel the magic, like I never felt before
 I imagine that it's always been there
 I feel the magic, there's an angel looking after me
 Angel baby give me more and more and Today I woke up by myself
 I hit the streets I wondered what should I do
 I never noticed from the start
 That I could feel alive again
 That I could feel a part of I feel the magic, like I never felt before
 I imagine that it's always been there
 I feel the magic, there's an angel looking after me
 Angel baby give me more and more and I never noticed from the start
 That I could feel alive again
 That I could feel a part of I feel the magic, like I never felt before
 I imagine that it's always been there
 I feel the magic, there's an angel looking after me
 Angel baby give me more and more and I feel the magic, like I never felt before
 I imagine that it's always been there
 I feel the magic, there's an angel looking after me
 Angel baby give me more and more and I feel the magic, like I never felt before
 I imagine that it's always been there
 I feel the magic, there's an angel looking after me
 Angel baby give me more and more and I feel the magic, like I never felt before
 I imagine that it's always been there
 I feel the magic
