Waiting

The Pierces

I called you an hour ago
But I'm still waiting, waiting
I'm waiting on you
I think we're gonna miss the show
I'm anticipating, 'pating
Another hour or two for you'Cause you can't make up your mind
What you love and hate
I'm waiting for that too
Look at how the time goes
When I'm waiting, waiting
Waiting on youIf you wait too long, I'm going
If you wait too long, I'm gone
I'm leaving without knowing
If I'm ever, ever
Gonna come back homeI need to be alone
Because I'm hating, hating
I'm hating what I've done
Call you on the telephone
And you say you're waiting, waiting
To see what I've become'Cause you can't make up your mind
What you love and hate
I'm waiting for that, too
Look at how the time goes
When I'm waiting, waiting
Waiting on youIf you wait too long, I'm going
If you wait too long, I'm gone
I'm leaving without knowing
If I'm ever, ever
If I'm ever, ever
Ever, everNever want to leave if something's wrong
I came to say I
Never want to leave if something's wrong
I came to say I
Never want to leave if something's wrong
I came to say IIf you wait too long, I'm going
If you wait too long, I'm gone
If you wait too long, I'm going
If you wait too long, I'm gone
I'm leaving without knowing

If I'm ever, ever
Gonna come back home
Gonna come back home
Gonna come back home
Gonna come back home
Gonna come back home
Gonna come back home
Gonna come back home
Gonna come back home
Gonna come back homeI called you an hour ago
