

Zerospace (album version)

Kidneythieves

I am a fallen zer
Below the glaciers of the evil
I am a golden superhero
Above the sun and all the peopleSpace in your face I'm gonna drink
The fucking ocean, 'cause I ain't from a coast, I'm just coastin'
Said I was an afterthought you'd bring along,
Well who you after now, bitch? Run, motherfucker, runAnd if you think I'm space-cakening
I've been in shit of rude awakening
And I'm floating high (but I'm always down)
Skip or trip to face the space or fake in thisIn the middle I stay in place, skip or trip at zerspace
And I'm floating high (but I'm always down)
Skip or trip to face the space or fake in thisI met a fellow zer
He took me to the silver people
I said, "I think you are my hero"
We were one, it all was clearerSpace in your face, it's the way to get you closer
While you were sittin' on your ass
I drank the fucking ocean
Zerspace, the way to get your kicks
But too many chefs in the kitchen could spoil the mixI am a means until the end
I move a mountain with my hand
And I'm floating high (but I'm always down)
Skip or trip to face the space or fake in thisIn the middle I stay in place, skip or trip at zerspace
And I'm floating high (but I'm always down)
Skip or trip to face the space or fake in thisAnd I'm high (but I'm always down)
Skip or trip to face the space or fake in this
