

Idlers Dream

Oasis

My heart it skips a beat when I behold
The light that's shining through Your eyes of gold From heavenly blood you seem to spring
From heavenly waters you can drink
I'll meet you on a day that never ends
I'll greet you in a way that heaven meant You lay me down gently on the leaves you cover me over in my sleep I never did say and I wish I could I never could pray 'cos it's just no good
I hope you don't break up my heart of stone
I don't wanna scream out loud
And wake up on my own
And as i close my eyes
And the sky turns red
I realise just what you are:
You're an idler's dream
And your're singing shang-ri-la
Shang-ri-la
Shang-ri-la
Shang-ri-la
