Periphery

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Silence is bring on the heart attack.
Pushing and pulling going on within my brain.
It says to lay low.
To lay low.Dead end.
The darkness latches on.
Now I am a product of a mind that wasn't ever mine and now it says "Kill them slow".Weighed down.
I'm drowning in this stale moment.
Renown is yelling at me from above.
This is a one way road.
Kill them slow.Long ago I was forced to drink.
Now I long for a taste of what stains the murder in red.
Straight back to the moment of a distant memory.
Strip away all the empathetic feeling towards a world that has grown absent of all my love.
Sadistic aura.Dead end.
The darkness latches on.
Now I am a product of a mind that wasn't ever mine and now it says "Kill them slow".Weighed down.
I'm drowning in this stale moment.
Renown is yelling at me from above.
This is a one way road.
Kill them slow.Stop fucking pulling.
Will you release the grip and let go?
I've got a life to live and a lot to end.
I'll hang 'em up.
Leave the bloody mess all around.
Bow my head then calmly walk away.
Kill them slow!
