So keep your two cents before I give your ass a dime
Pistol on my waist gon' need a funeral at wake
Cuz ima pull that motherf**ker dead in your face

Verse 3

I put it down like its too heavy
Rocking out with the world in my hands
Heaven in my plans

how do I live, when im as deadly as I am
I give props and every other extra credit that I can Cuz see, ill respect the merit of a fan
No homo but please blow me to japan

Ok im getting hotter ima need another fan
I keep going so here I go again
Always trying to be better than I am Label me the best and in the throne I will stand Why? Because I'm just a stand up guy
Your hands smoking me cuz I got your hands high
I prolly be ? ja rule when I cry
You only know me but god knows I try
No x-rays show my insides and I gotta stay IN touch with my pimp side so tell your girl I say wass up
I say hi she like thats whats up
Like the sky

Lord save the rings I am way too vain
Listening to that Kanye again
I play the game like, I made the game
You playin like you tryna get traded man
And you aint gotta call me the greatest man
But I am more of a dog than the greatest Dane

You boys actin like ladies man
Crying like you bout to have babies man
And you can find me grindin on the days it rain
And thats because i know the sun will raise again
