Nothing Less Than Love

Bryan White

She cries just a little when she sees him walk away
After all, she can't see it any other way
And it's hard when you're feelin' like there's nothin' left to lose
No, she can't help it, she sees no excuseThere's no good in her goodbye, there's no tears, she hasn't cried
But it's not enough, she needs nothin' less than love
Don't say the sacrifice is small and no one ever has it all
When all she wants is nothin' less than loveYou can stand in the middle and see it either way
That's just how it is, no one ever wants the blame
So she'll pick up the pieces and pretend she just can't see
'Cause all she's looking for is some room to breatheThere's no good in her goodbye, there's no tears, she hasn't cried
But it's not enough, she needs nothin' less than love
Don't say the sacrifice is small and no one ever has it all
When all she wants is nothin' less than loveShe knows better than to wait
Just keep waitin' 'til it's too lateThere's no good in her goodbye
When all she wants is nothin' less than love
Don't say the sacrifice is small and no one ever has it all
When all she wants is nothin' less than love

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/