Another Battle

CF

Lived in a nightmare
Never woke up
Searched for peace, without result
Waited for changes that never came
Just another war
Ive got to blame
I dont want to live in your cold world
I dont want to hear your evil words
Find another one who plays your game
Im sure that everything will be the sameI wont fight another battle
I wont take this anymore
I wont give you any reasons
To not walk out through that doorNo moments left of calm silent sea,
My hope is long gone, don't you come near
No more strength to argue again
To your disappointment I wont show any fear
