Broken Plates

Magneta Lane

You came way to soon
That ego confused your girl
She thought she had the best of youLook I've never broken plates
Always cared that they
Never treated life like a damn game
So this haunts me haunts me haunts me haunts meNever understood
Why I was always good
People rearrange, switch and turn their place
Everybody falls now darling
But I'll stay the same for youHeyMy voice is complaint
I'm safer I've been protecting myself from the one who crawlsLook I've never broken plates
Always cared that they
Never treated life like a damn game
So this haunts me haunts me haunts me haunts meNever understood
Why I was always good
People rearrange, switch and turn their place
Everyone falls now darling
But i'll stay the same for youAnd I never understood
Hey why I was always good
People rearrange, switch and turn their place
Everybody falls now darling
But I'll stay the same for youHey
