Where I've Been

Rival Sons

She said since we've been together
I tried not to keep secrets
I was so lost then
I don't like to talk about itSaid I needed money
Cause the habit wasn't cheap
I gave them my body
Now my memory won't let me sleep
Now I lay beside you
And when you touch me
I feel i don't deserve you
That's when you remind meShe says how could you love me
When you know where I've beenHow could you love me
When you know where I've beenHow could you love me
When you know where I've beenYou said when i came home
I tried to put myself back together
The war is still going on
Now my brother is still in danger
Now I'm the soldier
And the tradition runs deepI gave them my body
Now my memory won't let me sleep
Now I lay beside you
And when you touch me
I feel i don't deserve you
That's when you remind meI say how could you love me
When you know where I've beenHow could you love me
When you know where I've beenHow could you love me
When you know where I've beenHow could you love me
When you know where I've beenHow could you love me
When you know where I've beenHow could you love me
When you know where I've beenHow could you love me
When you know where I've been
