I'm Not Driving Anymore

Rob Dougan

You tell me I can't slow down you tell me where I've got to be,
I spin into the darkness but I swear that I can't see anything in front of me no, it's a joke, I'm not driving anymore
I can't keep up with you you're closing in behind I've got headlight in my eyes don't get too close to me can't you see that we'll collide and then because of this it's just all wrong
I'm not driving anymore
I can't keep up with you
so leave me on my own brought me down and race away (from me-distant) I've got nowhere to go to
I don't think I can get back on my feet (back on my feet) it came right out of the water eyes wide and terrified I can't pull my brakes on I can't swerve to stay alive cos then I'll lose control and I can't choose
I'm not driving anymore
I can't keep up with you
so leave me on my alone
brought me down and race away (from me-distant)
I've got nowhere to go to
I don't think I can get back on my feet (back on my feet)
get me out of harmsway can't you see I'm paralysed I wanna fade out gracefully but you keep keeping me alive to face another day can't you see I'm through
I'm not driving anymore
I can't keep up with you can't keep away(can't keep away-distant(3))tell me how am am I, god

I wanna end this cervex saw till this night-light expires I wanna go swimming in the sun and I come up for breath sit in god's room
I'm not driving anymore
I'm only for consumption
I don't know how to play my part I swear I'm all lonely in this thing (unsure) and I'm drivimg my car to oblivion, let it come soon
I'm not driving anymore
I can't keep up with you.
