

Austin, We Have A Problem

Fall Out Boy

We're pretty boys
For secret girls
Who never stood a chance in the world
I'm not ready for sincerity
I'd tell any lie to keep you listening I gave you pretentious.
I gave you indifference, but you only wanted undressed and defenseless.
With all your cheap words about hearts and accidents
Who are you kidding? Sincerity's in
So don't you sigh like you mean it
Hold back your breath
In a year no one will even care. Sincerity's in
So don't you sigh like you mean it
Hold back your breath
In a year Everyone loves an underdog that's why you're singing along. With all your cheap words
Who are you kidding?
We're pretty boys
For secret girls
Who are you kidding? Sincerity's in
So don't just sigh like you mean it
Hold back your breath
In a year no one will even care. Sincerity's in
So don't just sigh like you mean it
Hold back your breath
In a year When the hook sets in
And this all ends.
I will wish it never began,
Oh I will die without attention. When the hook sets in
And when this all ends.
I will wish it never began,
Oh I will die without attention. Oh I will die without attention. Sincerity's in
So don't just sigh like you mean it
Hold back your breath
In a year no one will even care. Sincerity's in
So don't just sound like you mean it
Hold back your breath
In a year
