

New Heart

Indiana

Take a minute to catch your breath
I walk away and you protest, and I don't get Me I'll remind you who to miss
You want to find, find and forget
There's nothing left And I want to stop you falling hard
I want to burn you a new heart
I want to burn you a new heart
I want to burn you a new heart
I want to burn you a new heart
This love is life as simple and I won't be blamed for it because We've come undone
Just look into my soul
Re-size them what you bleed the less I try
I cannot lie And I want to stop you falling hard
I want to burn you a new heart
I want to burn you a new heart
I want to burn you a new heart
I want to burn you a new heart Is this the part where I'm supposed to say
I still love what we saw
How can it be hard if stand deceiving
Slip away while you were sleeping
What you needs is to see me go, go
I want to burn you a new heart
And I want to stop you falling hard
I want to burn you a new heart
I want to burn you a new heart
I want to burn you a new heart
