

Movin'

Gregory Porter

I feel just like a kite
But one without a string
One that is floating around
I don't know what tomorrow will bring
I feel just like a bird
But one without a home
One that is floating
Full of endless oceans empty horizons no rest in sight
What does it mean when you say you want to be free
Free to sing, free to dance, free to let someone take a glance, in a world that's free of me
Then you say, then you say, you're moving on
Then you say, I've got other plans (Oh girl no)
You movin' in the wrong direction, moving in the wrong direction (yeah)
Movin' in the wrong direction, so far away from me
You're moving in the wrong direction, moving in the wrong direction (yeah)
Moving in the wrong direction, so far away from me
Then you say, you're moving on
Then you say, you've got other plans (oh girl)
You're moving in the wrong direction, movin in the wrong direction
Lady you're moving in the wrong direction, so far away from me
I wish my momma was here a strong, strong steady love
She would know what to do, what to say, how to pray
To make things better
What does it mean, when you say you want to be free
Free sing, free to dance, free to let someone take a glance
In a world that's free of me
You're movin' in the wrong direction, moving in the wrong direction
And you're moving in the wrong direction so far away from me
Girl you're movin', well you're movin', well your movin', well you're moving away
So far away, so far away from me (Oh)
Well your moving (x8) ooh
Far away from me
