Jezebel

Memphis May Fire

She's on the prowl.
She wants it all & she'll stop at nothing!
Everyone knows she's well aware of the fact that her self respect was long lost on her search for something.
First in line to give it up to the guy at the bar buying two drinks at a time.
One track mind, it's disgusting that she thinks she's got it all figured out, but what she doesn't know is that to us she's just another one of them.
Girls like you are a dime a dozen.
Just leave, just leave!
We're all better off without your disease, disease!
Take your pick from the willing but you'll never get me.
It's obvious the stage is all that you see,
so take your pick from the willing but you'll never get me.
Just go!
The innocent look on her face is all fake.
She's worn out & worn down from all the one night stands, never any interest in a real man or a love that will last.
Oh what a waste!
What a waste of a beautiful face.
Was it the way she was raised or just the terrible choices she's chosen to make?
Every night it's all the same.
She steals another heart so she can drop another name.

Oh what a shame!
You're all the same.
You're all the same!
All dressed up in purple & pink,
she'll do whatever it takes to get to VIP.
She thinks everyone wants to see her down on her knees, b ut what she doesn't know is everyone just wants her to leave!
Just leave, just leave!
We're all better off without your disease, disease!
Take your pick from the willing but you'll never get me.
It's obvious the stage is all that you see,
so take your pick from the willing but you'll never get me.
I can feel her staring at me from across the room.
She's got the worst of intentions & she smells like trouble & cheap perfume.
She's got one thing on her mind, her target locked in sight.
She never gets denied but tonight she'll be surprised.
She knows every word to every song I write so let's have a sing-a-long.

Hello, hello & goodbye!
One track mind, you wanna check me off the list?
Ya right!
The stage is all you see, so take your pick from the willing but you'll never get me!
