

Loser Like Me

Sixpence None the Richer

You know I need
All the love you give a loser like me
I just don't know why you would give it for free
When I don't deserve it You know now, I wonder why
You wouldn't want to charge a higher price
You take a loss and still give another try
Knowing that some day we'll find each other always saying Your love is fire and I am the wood
That burns inside the warmth of your blood
Without you I'd fade away a loser just like me You know I try
To give you all the love I hold inside
I have a hard time when I can't say it right
But I'll see the day when I will find the words and say them Your love is fire and I am the wood
That burns inside the warmth of your blood
Without you and the flame you keep inside
I'd fade into the night, I'll always say them Your love is fire and I am the wood
That burns inside the warmth of your blood
Without you and the flame you keep inside
I'd fade into the night, a loser just like me You know I need
All the love you give a loser like me
I just don't know why you would give it for free
