Colourblind

Elyar Fox

I was sleeping with my heart tucked under my pillow
Looking at the world through a blacked out window
The last one left, she broke my heart into a million pieces
That girl isnt you, noYou hit my heart got a boombox feeling
Knocked me out now Im staring at the ceiling
My colours faded, she brought them back to life
You let me in and it feels so good inside, yeahGive me you heart girl Im not gonna let go
Out of the dark Im gonna love you retro
My lonely days were countless
You came my way and nowGive me you heart girl Im not gonna let go
Out of the dark Im gonna love you retro
My lonely days were countless
I saw your face and nowTheres no more black and white
For the first time, first time
Open up my eyes
And Im not colourblind
And Im not colourblindChilling in my sunset laughing till the suns out
JJ Price Tag playing at the background
I got a feeling flying through the sky
That everything is gonna be just fineGive me you heart girl Im not gonna let go
Out of the dark Im gonna love you retro
My lonely days were countless
You came my way and nowGive me you heart girl Im not gonna let go
Out of the dark Im gonna love you retro
My lonely days were countless
I saw your face and nowTheres no more black and white
For the first time, first time
Open up my eyes
And Im not colourblind
And Im not colourblindGive me you heart girl Im not gonna let go
Out of the dark Im gonna love you retro
My lonely days were countless
You came my way and nowGive me you heart girl Im not gonna let go
Out of the dark Im gonna love you retro
My lonely days were countless
I saw your face and nowTheres no more black and white
For the first time, first time
Open up my eyes
And Im not colourblind (no)

And Im not colourblind
And Im not colourblind
