Miracle

Rock Kills Kid

Nothing is right, everything's wrong now
Where do I go this time?
What do I try, no, I don't belong now
Where do I go?I need some kind of miracle
Someone to let me know
That they won't let goI'm dying inside, I've got to be strong now
Where do I go this time?
I try to deny that everything's wrong now
Where do I go?I need some kind of miracle
Someone to let me know
That they won't let go
While I lie awake at night
I want to see the light, a miracleI'll bury it all
Deep inside myself, I'll hold it in
I'll be keeping the dark
Keep you far away, you won't get inI feel that nothing is right
'Cause everything's wrong
Where do I go this time
Oh, where do I go, where do I go?I need some kind of miracle
Someone to let me know
That they won't let go
While I lie awake at night
I want to see the light, a miracleWhile I lie awake at night
I want to see the light
Some kind of miracle, yeah
While I lie awake at night
I want to see the light
