

First and Last Thing You Do (Holland Tunnel)

John Phillips

First thing you do drive right through that Holy Tunnel Pay your toll to the soul on the other side
 Pick up your ticket for the heavenly Highway
 And ride, ride, ride, baby ride

You passed your last chance for sweet repentance Get your halo, harp and wings Cloud number nine Check your gas and oil quick, before you spoil
 And ride, ride, ride, baby ride

Last thing you'll do is hear a jingle in your pocket when they sock it to you further down the line And all that funny money won't bring you milk and honey So ride, ride, ride, Abraham, ride

 And red ballin' all the way

Yes, the lollipop you're suckin', mmm it's also good for truckin'
 A little good luck
and you'll get stuck in L.A.
 Drive on

First thing you do is drive right through that Holland Tunnel Pay your toll to the soul on the other side
 Pick up your ticket
 for the New Jersey turnpike
And drive, drive, drive baby drive

This is your last chance for the Howard Johnson's Get your steamed clams station number nine You'd better check your gas and oil forget to be loyal

And drive, drive, drive baby drive

Uh, uh, down the highway Red ballin' all the way
You know the lollipop you're suckin' yes, it's also good for truckin'
A little good luck
and you'll get stuck in L.A.

Firrrst thing you do is drive right through the Holland Tunnel
Pay your toll to the soul on the other side
Pick up your ticket for the New Jersey turnpike Drive, drive, drive

Ok...

Spend all our money in Las Vegas, Nevada and red ballin' down to old L.A.
