

Stand Up

Bill Wray

Days are hot, and the nights are long.
Live my life to the words of a song.
Everybody's got a price to pay.
Tought young just to look the other way.

I'm tired of being pushed around.
This time I'm gonna hold my ground.
These times they only get worse.
This covering up has gotta be a curse.
I've had enough.

I gotta stand up.
I gotta prove it all my life.
It's time to stand and fight.
Stand up.
Gotta stand up.
You know it's harder than it seems.
You gotta fight for those dreams.
Stand Up.

Looking at life like a promised land.
My dreams like a flag clutched in my hand.
And everybody need something to believe.
But you strip me of all my dignity.

I tried hard just to live my life right.
Mind my own business, stay clear of the fight.
But I'm tired of watching, all life pass me by.
But this blood burning in my veins.
Wondering when, I've had enough.

I gotta stand up.
I gotta prove it all my life.
It's time to stand and fight.
Stand up.
Gotta stand up.
Oh, stand up.
Oh, stand up.
Yeah.
Gotta stand up.

You gotta spend your life.
To stand on up
Yeah.
Gotta stand up.

Lyrics Submitted by Katrina Lester

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>