Angel Baby

Mrs. Magician

Angel baby
You're mine forever
Angel baby
You, angel baby, you
Who is the dream who starts me dreaming
Angel baby
Then keeps me worrying and scheming
You, angel baby, you
Who starts me walking 'round in clover
Angel baby
Then flips my crazy heart right over
You, angel baby, you
Who is the chick I would pick
As the absolutely perfect miss for me to kiss
Who is the girl who can twirl me
Around her little finger when we kiss again
Who can imagine what I'd give for
Angel baby
Just for the chance to love and live for
You, angel baby, you
(Angel baby)
You're mine forever
(Angel baby)
You, angel baby, you
Who is the chick he would pick
As the absolutely perfect miss for him to kiss
Who is the girl who can twirl him
Around her little finger when they kiss again
Who can imagine what I'd give for
Angel baby
Just for the chance to love and live for
You, angel baby, you
(Angel baby)
You're mine forever
(Angel baby)
You, angel baby, you
