Cracking Up

The Jesus and Mary Chain

Cracking up, I'm getting ready to go
Had enough, I can't take any more
No pills that I can take
This is too real and there ain't no escapeIt scare the daylights, it make a nightmare
I'm tense and I'm nervous
Everybody all around me
Shakin' hands and sayin' howdieI don't think it's funny no moreCracking up like a worn out shoe
Ain't wet but the world leakin' through
I'd run but I find no pace
I laugh but it's wrecking me, wrecking meIt make a shiver, it make a shake
It make a monster just like an earthquake
Everybody havin' fun
I don't know how they can carry on'Cause I don't think it's funny no moreAt dead of night time, at crack of dawn
It comes upon me without warning
If I were a gunman, I would shoot
I'd tear the hair out by the root
I'd make a knife out of a notion
All at sea in an ocean of emotionI don't think it's funny no more
I don't think it's funny no more
(Cracking up)I don't think it's funny no more
(Cracking up)
I don't think it's funny no more
(Cracking up)I don't think it's funny no more
(Cracking up)
I don't think it's funny no more
(Cracking up)
I don't think it's funny no more
