California Daze

Peace

Here's one for the diamonds in the dark
(California Daze)
And all the people in the park
(Never feels the same)
Especially for the amblers in the gloom
(it's the darkest gloom)
And all the feathers feeling blueOooooh, she tastes like sunlight
And she's always gonna be there, in the back of your mind
Ooooooh, Is there time to rewind?
Were you born to live, or born to die?
Forget and forgive, there's a place you can liveGo and watch the pretty girls in town
(California daze)
When you're feeling kind of down
(Never feels the same)
Lean in to a California Daze
(It's the darkest gloom)
It's always been the fastest wayOooooh, she tastes like sunlight
And she's always gonna be there, in the back of your mind
Ooooooh, Is there time to rewind?
Were you born to live, or born to die?
Forget and forgive, there's a place you can liveOooooh, she tastes like sunlight
And she's always gonna be there, in the back of your mind
Ooooooh, Is there time to rewind?
Were you born to live, or born to die?(solo)Forget and forgive, there's a place you can live
