

Land of Light (Covered By Powerworld)

Freedom Call

I'm diving through an empty space
Where shadows flashing around
An angels voice, so close so far
I'm reaching holy ground
A broken heart, beats deep inside
A silent lake of tears And I cry, you can see the tears
In my eyes, like pouring rain
The hand on my heart
I'm leaving the night To the land of the light
The garden of life
remember the golden times An ancient time, forgotten land
I've never seen before
Unholy spell, a land of ice
An everlasting war And I fly to the far horizon
So high to the Land of the Light
The garden of life
remember the golden times And I cry, you can see the tears in my eyes
You can see them burning
The hand on my heart
I'm leaving the night
