

I Don't Want To Live Today

Ape Hangers

Woke up this morning to a filthy sky above
I didnt wanna get out of my bed
When I was dreaming I was so in love
so in love I wished that I was dead
Can you dig it?
Can you help me? Can you help me?
Look into these eyes and tell me something here's worth living for today
Well I work so hard what I got that aint much
What I got is mine all mine
But sometimes a helping hand is everything can you understand?
do you ever feel to lost to fight?
Can you help me? Can you help me?
I dont think i want to hesitate
Can you help me? Can you help me?
Look into these eyse and tell me something heres worth living for today.
