Hold On

Kt Tunstall

Say you to me, you're a bird with an eye for anything shiny Searching the land for a hero of a man You say I need more than my fair share of attention But I think you know that just isn't so Underneath I felt the fire of a burning question Tearing me apart right from the very start And now I see that it don?t take a trick of the light to excite me So strong, so long, you'll see Hold on to what you've been given lately Hold on to what you know you've got Hold on to what you've been given lately Hold on ?cause the world will turn if you're ready or not Simplicity, a heart of gold, an old head on young shoulders Quiet and lovely, become a part of me And now I see from a handful of names and a thousand faces One light burning fiercely I was tired of January, I was tired of June I felt a change a-comin', oh I was tired of January, tired of June I felt a change a-comin', oh I felt a change a-comin', I felt a change a-comin' Felt a change a-comin' soon, oh Hold on to what you've been given lately Hold on to what you know you've got Hold on to what you've been given lately Hold on ?cause the world will turn if you're ready or not, whoa Hold on to what you've been given lately Hold on to what you know you've got Hold on to what you've been given lately Hold on ?cause the world will turn if you're ready or not Oh yeah, well the world will turn if you're ready or not Oh, yes the world will turn if you're ready or not
