All Misery/Flowers

The Gutter Twins

Would you leave me alone, my sweet Simone?
If I lay on my back down below on the track
Remember the night, how Id wade in the water
Be counting the stars and starting me overThey shine your eyes
Gonna make me rain, gonna make you rise
When Im gone baby, dont you forget it
I did all I did just to get through to heavenGot no mother, she cant find me
Got no father, he gonna blind me
Little girls might twitch at the way I itch
But when I burn its a son of a bitchHold on, hold on
Hold on, all misery gone
Hold on, hold on
Hold on, all misery goneMake me, shake me, bleed all over
Going down to the ground in deep black water
Lets ride, suicide
Say what you want but you make it, dont lieDont let me down, baby, on a bed of hard thistle
Gonna die when I drown just to have it away
Those lies in my eyes
Push you down in the river till you testifyMy mother, she dont know me
And my father, he cant own me
Little girls might twitch at the way I itch
But the way I burn is a son of a bitchMake me, shake me, deep black water
Gonna run through my pain, gonna make it rain
Baby Im gone, so dont you forget it
I did all I did just to get through to heavenHold on, hold on
Hold on, all misery gone
Hold on, hold on
Hold on, all misery goneIf you could hear me love
I'd tell to you my story
To you and only you
So love that you might save meI woke up from a dream
I woke up, I was crying
I saw an animal
With eyes like mine on fireI saw my own true love
She was there selling flowers
Has she forget-me-nots
White lilies or red roses?And then from far away
Who's that I see come riding?
Upon a pale white horse

Come riding fast as lightningOh, if you can hear me love
I'd tell you my story
So that you might save me
So that you might save me
So that you might save me
So that you might save me
