Late Again

Steverlinck, Jasper

Late again
I gave the dinner to the dog
As I wiped away another jealous tear
Here am I, not brave enough
To think you as a sinner
Ooo, baby
You're making me crazy
You're making that woman part of me
And I don't ask why
Ooo, baby
You're making me crazy
You're making that woman part of me
And I don't ask why
Are you lying to me?
Playing games, little lamb, in a wolf's suit
Licking your lips, yeah, yeah, yeah
Even though I'll wonder
I'll let you back, boy
You call me a fool
Just call me a crazy fool
Late again
And I'm reading a book
About women from Venus
Men from Mars
Here am I, believing every word
I wonder if it could have been Written about you
Ooo, baby
You're making me crazy

You're making that woman part of me
And I don't ask why
Ooo, baby
You're making me crazy
You're making that woman part of me
And I don't ask why
Are you lying to me?
Playing games, little lamb, in a wolf's suit
Licking your lips, yeah, yeah, yeah

Even though I'll wonder
I'll let you back, boy
Just call me a fool
Call me a crazy fool
Just call me a fool
Call me a crazy fool
(well, you're lying to me baby
and I'll do anything for you
it's just deeper, it's neurotic,
it's the way I feel about you ooo, you've got me comfortably lost
you've got me, ooo, you've really got me)
Really got me, yeah
it's just deeper, it's neurotic,
