

Jubilation

Coultrain

Re-jubilation with some celebration beginning
Total rejection to lies and deception and sinning

Sinners take key

For the life that you lead is deceiving, yeah!

Nothing replaces a man

That embraces believing, no!

People take heart

It's the time to be sport

To be honest

Join the reunion

There's one last communion upon us

Sinners take the key

For the life that you lead is deceiving, yeah!

Nothing replaces a man

That embraces believing, no!

I'm betting, I'm betting on Jesus

I'm hoping, hoping hell freezes

I'm hoping, hoping it just freezes

The devil, the devil

As for the children

God bless and God will

They'd know sorrow

Share the confusion

And life's disillusion tomorrow

Sinners take key

For the life that you lead is deceiving, yeah!

Nothing replaces a man that embraces believing, no!

I'm betting, I'm betting on Jesus

I'm hoping, hoping hell freezes

I'm hoping, hoping it just freezes

The devil, the devil

Re-jubilation with some celebration beginning
Total rejection to lies and deception and sinning

Sinners take key

For the life that you lead is deceiving, yeah!

Nothing replaces a man

That embraces believing, no!
